Elvis Elite Bingo

Squamish, BC (November 14, 2011) – Chances Squamish Community Gaming Centre is committed to bringing free live entertainment acts to the Squamish community. On Saturday, November 26, Chances Squamish announces the addition of what is sure to be a crowd pleaser to the night's bingo event. Elvis Elite will perform live during bingo beginning at 7pm.

The furled lip, the intense gaze and the swiveling hips... Elvis Presley's spirit is kept alive and well through the performance of Elvis Elite a.k.a. Steve Elliott.

Born and raised in Nanaimo BC, Steve had many artistic abilities before stumbling upon his career as a singer and entertainer. His Mother, a very talented Artist of all trades, encouraged Steve at a very young age to draw and be creative with expressions and originality.

Steve excelled with his art skills and in 1995, he became the Top Political Cartoonist in BC for his caricatures. He freelanced in various weekly publications for the Vancouver Net chain for Community News papers.

With no prior singing abilities, he walked into a Karaoke contest at a local mall and was intrigued by the performers caught in their acts. The contest was set in the era of classic rock and early crooners. Steve decided to enter last minute for fun and found that he had a natural ability to Sing and entertain! He won a prize set of "Elvis" CD's and discovered the rawness and sensualities in Elvis Presley's voice which lead him to his new found career as a performer. Since then, Steve has perfected his act as a tribute artist using the energy in the music of "Elvis" to express to a generation of "all ages" the memories and magic of the Young King!

Steve has been a performer since 2000 and has won various Elvis contests throughout Canada including the Grand Canadian Championship of the Pacific Northwest Elvis Festival 2004 in Penticton BC.

He travels now full time with his "Elvis Elite" show and his act has taken him throughout Canada and the USA. Not only does Steve portray an uncanny likeness to Elvis, he also excels in the voices of many other celebrities such as Roy Orbison, Louis Armstrong and classic Crooners like Nat King Cole, etc. Steve may surprise you at the next performance you take in...you may be watching a celebrity variety show!

With authentic Costumes, the Elvis Elite show brings a fresh and thrilling experience to the greatest and most universal performer that ever lived! Steve will make sure that you see and hear something original in every performance he gives.

The "King" will sing and swing in Squamish on the bingo stage so put on your blue suede shoes, come out and get all shook up at this rockin' event.
